TEN CASES TO BE DECIDED

All to-day if Possible-List of the Persous to be Tried and the Offenses that are Charged-District Attorney Gaines to Appear for the Government, and Capt. Dovener for Some of the Defendants.

United States District Judge John J. Jackson reached the city last night at 11:45 o'clock, via the Ohio River road. from Charleston, and this morning he opens a special "strike" term of court at the Federal building, for the purpose of deciding a number of cases of violation of his injunction restraining the public from interfering with the operation of the cars of the Wheeling Railway Company. Accompanying the judge came District Attorney Joseph H. Gaines, who will care for the govern nent's interests in to-day's trials. Chief Deputy United States Marshal Wilton Randolph came to town yesterday norning and spent the day collecting and arranging the evidence that will be adduced to-day against the persons under arrest. It is learned that some of the defendants will be represented by no less able legal counsel than Con gressman B. B. Dovener, and it may be that there will be experienced some difficulty in finishing all of the cases in

The persons under arrest, whose trials are scheduled to take place to-day are as follows:

August Muley, the South Side barber, charged with abusing the deputy marshals and street railway employes. The government has a large number of witlesses who will testify against Muley. He was arrested May 12.

throwing filth at the operators of a car and for stationing himself at the cross ng half a day and threatening the lives of operators of passing cars. It is thought Judge Jackson will dispose of the Julius Hartfire and Joseph McCrea cases to-day. Evidence was recently taken before United States Commissioner Boyd in these cases, and a transcript forwarded to Judge Jackson In the meantime McCrea and Hartfire have been in jall here, Engagement Monday. Crowds are sure to flock to Wheeling park next Monday night and pack the Casino to the Mmit to witness the production of the humorous and ever-popular romantic opera, "Fra Diavolo," by the Waite Comic Opera Company. The management has been especially fortunate in securing the attraction, as it is the best organization at present engaged in light opera in this country. It comes here with the prestige of three continuous years before the public of the leading cities, and enhanced by having among its cast of principals, artists of recognized reputation second to none in the country. Among these Miss Louise Moore, the fascinating and beautiful young prima-donna; Mr. Joseph W. Smith, the popular tenor: Mr. Claude Amsden and Frank Wooley, the versatile and well known comedians; Miss Mayme Taylor, Mr. John Dewey, Mr. Victor Delacy, and others. PAN HANDLE AND OHIO RIVER

Railroads, Commencing To-morrow, is the Information Phat Leaks out in Advance of the Publication of the New Schedules of the two Lines This Would Indicate Very Close Relations Between the two Lines.

Although the new passenger and Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis and Ohio River railroads, which are to go into effect to-morrow had not been made public last night, the Intelligencer learned upon excellent authority that the two companies will inaugurate through train service between Pitts burgh and Kenova, the latter town being the southern terminus of the Ohio River line.

This would indicate even closer relations between the Pan Handle and Ohio River than have existed in the past. A short time ago there was current a rumor that the Ohio River would be aborbed by the Pan Handle, but this was promptly denied by General Manager Burt, of the former road. A local employe of the Pan Handle hazards the ssertion that the two lines will be consolidated within the ensuing month, and added that the through trains between Pittsburgh and Kenova are a feeler; in other words the consolidation project vould be considerably furthered if the new service is highly successful.

It is said there will be two through passenger trains on the two roads. One vill leave Pittsburgh in the morning for Kenova, and another leaves Kenova in the morning for Pittsburgh. It is also said there may be two other through trains, between Pittsburgh and Parkersburg. In addition to the through passenger trains, there will be a through freight train each way between Pitts burgh and Kenova.

B. & O.'s Queen City Hotel. There was a time, before dining cars became a fad, that the Baltimore & Ohlo railroad's "Queen City Hotel" at Cumberland, Md., was noted for its service and cuisine. In latter years, the reputation declined, as few travelers reputation declined, as few travelers partook of sustenance at the long tables in the big dining room. But an effort is to be made to restore the reputation of the 'seventies and 'eighties, and the hostelry has been placed in charge of I. N. Shattuck, who has been dining car superintendent of several big western roads. Considerable money will be spent on the hotel and it will again try for first-class patronage.

Car Breakers Fined.

The hearing of the quartette of stran-gers, whose arrest for breaking into a Baltimore & Ohio car at Glendale, was noted in the Intelligencer, occurred yesterday. The men gave their names as George Kimball, Andrew Clousman, George McMahon and E. G. Starkey George McMahon and E. G. Starkey, and Squire Pearre, of Moundsville, con-ducted the hearing. The three first named men were fined $3 and costs each and five days in Jail. Starkey, who is supposed to half from Wetzel county, was held until Monday, and he made a great race for liberty while the gang
